OUR STRUGGLE FOR a directional sign for Campbell on the Bayshore Freeway has gained another supporter. Supervisor Ralph Mehrkens notified us that he will use all possible means to get Campbell on the Freeway. We certainly appreciate his interest in our community. When we can succeed in attracting Governor Brown's attention to the matter, we may just win "our battle." We can use your help, Mr. Supervisor.

ALONG THE SAME VEIN ...Supervisors...we were invited to attend a meeting in the Supervisors Chambers where a Citizens Review Committee on Buildings and Parks program presented its recommendations to the County Board of Supervisors. It was very interesting to learn of the number of citizens who are taking an active interest in helping to plan for a better Santa Clara County.

EVER GET HOMESICK at home? During the County meeting, a report using colored slides was given showing the various phases of growth in the County. The first slide brought us back to the days when this area was a farming community. The slides were beautiful and it sort of made us "homesick".

WE ATTENDED ANOTHER meeting last week. We seem to be attending more meetings than a politician these days. The speaker was District Attorney Louis Bergna. Among the many topics, he spoke of the problem of juveniles and the literature that is easily available to them. He showed us a few of the magazines and books his office had found in the County. We are not sure, because we don't look for them, but we don't think that the local merchants are offering any of these for sale.

THE D.A. made a point of telling the group that it is almost impossible for government to stop the peddling of this sort of literature. Each of us could help by asking the merchant to discontinue the practice of stocking them. According to him, taking this sort of printed matter out of easy reach of the young set could help in reducing the mounting crime rate. In our opinion, it's a good idea even if it isn't connected to the crime rate increase.

RUMORS ABOUT TOWN had Myron Fairchild running for the City Council. Myron told us that he had seriously considered throwing his hat into the ring, but decided against it. We think that he would have been a fine Councilman, and in our book he proved this. If Campbell ever thought of drafting a man this is the time. However, we must realize that the Councilman's job is time demanding. Myron has given very much of his time to civic affairs. As a former councilman and Mayor of Campbell, we think Campbell would have been pleased to have Mr. Fairchild back in office. We consider it a loss to our city.

CHARLES ROSE'S NAME has been rumored as a possible candidate for the upcoming council race. Here again we think that he has proved his interest in the community. He has given much of his time and energy for the betterment of Campbell.

NAME CHANGE- The Campbell Grammar School will soon have another name. It will be the new home for the West Valley Junior College pending the construction of its own campus. Dr. Wallace W. Hall, President and Superintendent of the Junior College District, announces that architects will be contacted to make plans for the necessary changes to accommodate the 1500 freshmen students expected to enroll in classes beginning September 14.

Grammar School lease okayed; JC alterations plans are next

Trustees of West Valley Junior College last night authorized negotiations for the leasing of Campbell Elementary School for use as a temporary campus and designated it as the West Valley Junior College.

The facilities, which include 61,000 sq. ft. of buildings on a 12-1/2-acre site in downtown Campbell, would be leased for two years at $48,000 per year. The lease may be renewed thereafter, should WVJC desire it.

Dr. Wallace W. Hall, WVJC president, pointed out that "with these facilities we shall be much better off than many junior colleges which have had to use temporary facilities pending the completion of their permanent campus." Campbell High School laboratories and classrooms will also be utilized on a late afternoon and early evening basis.

He also indicated that use of portable classrooms on the school site and of classrooms in nearby churches would eliminate need for obtaining another school as temporary quarters. Had the Los Gatos University Avenue school been utilized also, a shuttle-bus system would have been necessary, Dr. Hall added.

Higgins and Root, Los Gatos architects, were authorized by the trustees to proceed with plans for such necessary alteration of the Campbell school as would make it usable for college purposes.

Dr. Gordon Aumack, new Dean of Instruction, reported that approximately 120 courses will be offered by the college this fall and that a preliminary catalog will be available within a couple of weeks.

On the financial side, Dr. Hall said West Valley College's share of funds from state Proposition 1A will be $1,215,396. This will be an outright grant for buildings, construction, and land acquisition. To obtain it, WVJC must have matching funds in the amount of $2,592,774, a ratio of 2.1:1. Only two other districts in the state—Foothill and Los Angeles Junior College—will receive more than $1 million, along with WVJC.

New City manager welcomed; attends first Council meet

NEW CITY MANAGER --Robert C. Stephens is sworn in as Campbell's new City Manager by City Clerk Mrs. Dorothy Trevethen. Stephens attended his first City Council meeting last Monday night.

A new City Manager was welcomed to Campbell this week. He is Robert C. Stephens, 43, who comes with the high recommendation of his former employer, the city of Delano, California, where he has served as City Manager since March, 1961. Before that he was Urban Renewal Director and Assistant City Manager at Sunnyvale. Stephens, who is married, has three children, two sons and a daughter.

One of the first decisions Stephens has been asked to make is on Phase II of the Campbell Park. If the overall plan appears satisfactory to Stephens, he was authorized by the City Council to put the contract out for bid for the rest rooms and storage building. Stephens has served as Recreation and Parks Director in Sunnyvale. The matter of payment of gas mileage to city employees called out on Saturdays on city business was also referred to the City Manager's office.

Dr. Wallace W. Hall, President of the West Valley Junior College, presented an informative address to the members of the City Council at their meeting Monday night, on the March 10th Bond Election for the new college. Dr. Hall told the city fathers that the District was not unmindful of the problems that the new college would present to the community in its temporary location at Campbell Grammar School. He said the administration would do everything possible to cooperate.

Dr. Hall was also asked by Councilman Robert McElroy "just how much will this bond issue take out of my pocket." Dr. Hall told the Council there will be no increase in the present tax rate of 54 cents for at least six or seven years, and possibly no increase after that.

If the Bond Issue is defeated, Dr. Hall told the council, the Junior College will continue at Campbell Grammar School as long as necessary. "In the long run, it will cost more ....construction costs are 5 percent more each year, and then there will be the cost of another election, which is $11,000 or $12,000. The district would save money by voting for the bond issue and still not increase the tax rate."

Police Dept. to hold auction

The Campbell Police Department will hold a public auction of unclaimed articles in the rear of the City Hall building Saturday morning, February 15, at 10 a.m. Among the articles to be sold will be unclaimed bicycles, tires, and hub caps. Anyone claiming ownership of these items must appear before 5 p.m. on February 14 to identify them. Otherwise all unclaimed items will be sold to the highest bidder.

52 building permits issued this month

Fifty-two building permits for construction in Campbell amounting to $609,740 were issued in the month of January, according to W.L. Morser, Chief Building Inspector. Largest number of permits were issued to Contractors Duc and Elliot, for 32 single family residences. In January, 1963, 73 permits were issued, a difference of $184,410.

Jack Payne observes 35th anniversary with Wells Fargo

Joaquin J. (Jack) Payne, assistant vice president and manager of Wells Fargo Bank's Campbell office, observes his 35th anniversary with the bank on February 18.

A native Californian, Payne joined Wells Fargo at the Gilroy branch in 1929. He has been assigned as manager at Campbell since 1948 and was promoted to assistant vice president last November.

Among his numerous civic and professional activities, Payne has been executive board member and committee chairman of the chamber of commerce, committee chairman for Rotary, Red Cross fund drive chairman, and treasurer of the Citizens Committee for Development of Downtown Campbell.

He lives in San Jose at 1814 Harmil Way.

Coventry School opens its doors

The newest school in the city of Campbell opened its doors to students, Monday, February 3. The Coventry School is the fourteenth school of the Moreland School District and the only one which is located within the city limits of Campbell.

The children who moved into the school numbered over six hundred, and had previously been housed at the El Quito Park, Baker, Payne and Castro Schools. The school was built through the use of the Loan Program of the State of California at a cost of $493,000 with an additional $26,000 for furniture and equipment. Also included in the State program were the eleven and a half acre site, blacktop play area, playground equipment and a street to the west of the campus. Kenneth Walter is the principal of the school.

Oklahoma to be presented by Campbell High

The Music and Drama Departments of Campbell High School will combine their talents to produce Roger's and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma" on the weekends of March 6, 7, 13 and 14th.

An invitation has been extended to the Honorable Henry Bellmon, Governor of the state of Oklahoma, to attend the performance. As yet no answer has been received to the invitation.

The production will be given in the auditorium of Campbell High School. Lawrence McCommas of the Music Department and William Harrison of the Drama Department are directing the show. John Quigley of the Art Department is designing the set and the lighting is under the supervision of Dwayne Faul. Playing the part of Laury will be Glynnis Wright, and Curly will be acted by Dick Blaine. Kim Scroggins will take the part of Ado Annie.

Boy who fell from tree still unconscious

Eight-year old Steven Nelson, who apparently fell from a 40 foot pine tree in an open field on San Tomas Aquino Road last Sunday is still unconscious, according to his mother, Mrs. Clifford Nelson, 1631 La Pradera Drive, Campbell.

The youngster, a second grade student at Latimer School, was apparently trying to reach a flag at the top of the tall tree, lost his balance, and fell. He was found by children who called his mother. The boy is being cared for at San Jose Hospital in the extensive care unit. Police reports indicate he is in serious condition. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, who have two other children, ask for prayers for the boy, and are confident he will recover. Nelson is a building superintendent for Little Builders, San Jose.

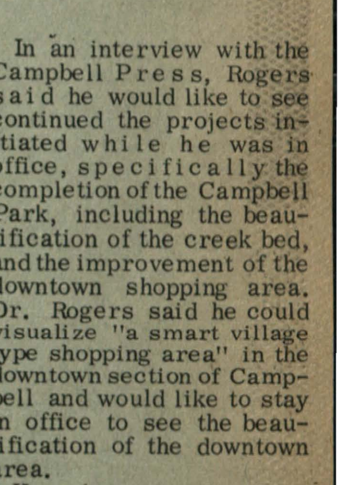
Dr. Edward J. Rogers, 150 Branbury Drive, has announced he will be a candidate for re-election to the Campbell City Council. Rogers, an instructor in the Political Science Department at San Jose State College, has served on the City Council for the past four years.



DR. EDWARD ROGERS

In an interview with the Campbell Press, Rogers said he would like to see continued the projects initiated while he was in office, specifically the completion of the Campbell Park, including the beautification of the creek bed, and the improvement of the downtown shopping area. Dr. Rogers said he could visualize "a smart village type shopping area" in the downtown section of Campbell and would like to stay in office to see the beautification of the downtown area.

He pointed out that the improvement of streets in Campbell was one of the more important projects started in the last year and he would like to see continued the "aggressive street improvement campaign" that began during his tenure.

Rogers, who is married, has three sons, all of whom attend schools in the Campbell and Moreland School Districts.

HEART CHAIRMEN

Richard A. Derus, of Boyce Systems, is Campbell city business division chairman for the 1964 Santa Clara County Heart Association campaign. Ted J. Regas, manager of the Campbell branch, Bank of America, is West Valley chairman. 8,000 volunteers will campaign during the month of February to raise $131,000 to support heart research, education and community service.

A job well done Whitey

This past week Councilman and former Mayor Henry Weitzel announced his decision not to seek re-election on the City Council. During his terms in office The Campbell Press has found occasion to disagree with Mr. Weitzel. And we have also found that in many instances we have fully agreed with his thinking. We have not kept score, and we think it is unimportant.

In our opinion what is extremely important is the attitude with which Whitey accepted our dissentions. For this we are extremely grateful, not because of our personal feelings, but because he has always understood that we were trying to do a job for the community, just as he was.

It was our pleasure to sit and discuss matters with Whitey, with each of us expressing divergent views. We knew full well that each of us was sincere in furthering the community benefit. The matter of who was right or wrong never became important. The question was, what was best for Campbell.

Although Whitey will no longer sit at the Council table, we are sure that he can be called upon for any assistance that may be needed. We have many times stated that the Councilman's job is not an easy one. But that each must expect more criticisms than compliments. We are not sure why, except that we are human beings and we have a tendancy to forget the good and remember the "bad". In our opinion Mr. Whitey learned this human fault and acted accordingly.

It has been our pleasure to have known Whitey and his wife Ann for a number of years. And in our own little way, and with our readers' permission, we wish them well. It has been our pleasure to have worked with you, Henry Weitzel.

IN MUSIC JOURNAL

Richard Gordon, music teacher at Camden High School, has been informed that an article which he authored will be published shortly in Music Journal, according to word received from Robert Cumming, Managing Editor. The article deals with conducting, a field in which Mr. Gordon excels. He is currently president of the American String Teachers' Association.

Finances of JC District above State Minimum

Assessed valuation of the West Valley Junior College District is "certainly above the state-prescribed minimum needed to support the operation of the college," Pres. Wallace W. Hall commented in the trustees' meeting last night. His remarks were in reply to a point raised by Trustee Robert Brydon who referred to a newspaper letter-to-the-editor (Campbell Press) reference to the district as "this poor struggling district."

The district's assessed valuation this year, Dr. Hall said, is $437,567,090. This does not include funds from personal property taxes which the district will receive in 1965 and 1966, he said.

"During 1964-65, our estimated assessed valuation," the president continued, "will be $506,136,000, or $163,270 per unit of average daily attendance, based on 3,100 students.

"In 1965-66, it will be an estimated $551,668,000, or $164,683 per unit, based on 3,350 students. This figure is considerably more than the $150,000 minimum assessed valuation per student required by the legislature for the establishment of new junior college districts, beginning in 1961," he said.

"WVJC's assessable 'wealth' compares favorably with that of neighboring JC districts. At any rate, Dr. Hall concluded, "the District is fully able to afford the educational facilities which West Valley College expects to provide."

Letters to the Editor

Joseph Anello
Editor, Campbell Press
Campbell, California
Dear Editor:

Prompted by these letters, of Randy Chicoine, January 15, and Mrs. McFall, Your Neighbors, and Bleatings, all of January 22, 1964, I was inspired to speak up about some "good" things Campbell is bent upon in the future.

These letters of interest written by Campbell citizens are good signs--the best--for they show that the Campbell area as a whole is doing more than just "surviving". A quick drive around town and its suburbs will show that she has come a long way since 1879, and much of this progress has been attained in the last decade, "nay," in the last five years. The verification of this progress I leave to other eagle-eyed citizens. My interest into the future is in a more educational way.

This new interest is born from the "fact" that soon (September 14, to be exact), a West Valley Junior College will be functioning. One could feel that this large step forward would be quite enough to brag about, but now and at the same time, there has just opened, and been approved, a Museum and Cultural Center for Campbell. One can very well see what a tie-in there will be between this community service type college and this cultural center.

From now on Campbell people may look forward and plan for many worth while events of a highly educational and creative nature. The Master Plan of California's school system has considered the value and importance of understanding the arts, not only in a historic manner but as an esthetic quality as well. For it is through the study and creative ability of its citizens that an approach to understanding and appreciating the arts will come about.

Campbell's school board will set its own tradition, based on the past, and related to the future; they will give their students and community at large, a new look at arts, as a "whole new field of experience". True art must be appreciated under the changing conditions of our times, for art is tied to the needs of our society and must reflect these changes as they appear.

Any art center's job is to create interest for all kinds of people, by exposing them to a variety of works, including all art forms and medias. To this end the community as a whole must be obligated. For the opportunity to expose one's self to "living" art will awaken one's appreciative senses and set the stage for the full understanding of the spirit behind any work of art.

Campbell Press will want to stand ready, keeping its people posted on local and world-wide art news. Through their columns they will invite and introduce new and established artist, of all art forms, to the community. They will encourage the doubtful student to pursue his talent. They will see that the rising "part-time" adult student takes hope, by learning that it is only through diversity of interest can he enrich his life. This is only one of the many educational features that will enlighten the Campbell citizens in the near future. May someone talk soon about others.

Sincerely,

ELIZABETH BIHN

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS
TENTH DISTRICT, CALIFORNIA

April 9, just eight weeks from today, is the last day to register for voting!

Thousands of Californians will probably procrastinate and on April 10 will realize they have lost a privilege which mankind has fought long and hard to win and millions are still denied -- the right to vote.

The crude beginnings of voting date back to the ancient Greeks who elected their leaders by dropping pebbles into a warrior's helmet or a Grecian urn. In the Tenth Century A.D., the Italians coined the word "ballota" to describe a small ball which was used for voting with a light colored ball indicating "yea" and a black ball indicating "nay". This is the genesis of our commonly used words "ballot" and "blackball".

The right to vote came hard and slowly from these beginnings. The Magna Carta in 1215 won basic rights for the people from their king but it wasn't until the Sixteenth Century that England finally saw the election of local officials.

Pre-Revolution America produced the first sustained drive against "taxation without representation" and developed the philosophy in our Declaration of Independence: "Governments (derive) their just power from the consent of the governed".

Even after this declaration our founding fathers apparently did not believe in giving every man the right to vote. When they wrote our Constitution in 1789, they made it possible for less than one-fourth of adult Americans to vote. Eleven of the thirteen original states restricted voting rights to property owners and taxpayers.

The Civil War period produced great advances in extending the right to vote to all Americans. In 1868 the Fourteenth Amendment was adopted extending voting rights to all adult males born or naturalized in the United States. In 1870 the Fifteenth decreed that the right to vote "shall not be denied...., on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

It took a half century more until 1920 for women to gain the vote with passage of the Nineteenth Amendment. In 1913 Americans voted for their Senators for the first time when the Seventeenth Amendment took the privilege away from the state legislatures and provided for direct elections.

Just last week Congress seriously addressed itself to further extension of voting rights to those who deserve but are denied them because of racial discrimination.

Much still needs to be done in many areas of the United States. "Tombstone voting" and "ballot stuffing" practices sometimes cancel the honest vote of an honest citizen.

But despite what still needs to be done, the progress of extending voting rights has been satisfying and worth the thousand years of great human effort. It is regrettable that on April 10 some persons will have procrastinated until it is too late to register and will have lost this hard won right.

It was Edmund Burke who said, "All that is necessary for the forces of evil to win the world is that enough good men do nothing."

Why not register tomorrow?

SAVINGS BOND DRIVE

Campbell Post Office employees joined fellow workers in their region this week to become the first federal agency to kick off its 1964 Savings Bond drive," Postmaster James M. Hurley announced here today.

"More than 55,000 postal workers in California, Nevada, Hawaii, and the Pacific Islands are taking part in the drive to increase regular purchase of Savings Bonds through automatic payroll deduction," he explained. "When the drive ends on February 28, we hope 75 per cent will be Bond buyers.

Nice day for a dryer.

But then again, so is every day. Because in addition to letting you dry the wash day or night—in any weather—a dryer dries better than anything under the sun. For example, with new damp dry settings, clothes come out just right for ironing. And some things need no ironing at all. Clothes also come out as clean as they went in. No clothesline marks, dust or dirt. Dryers also have a real soft touch. All your laundry comes out light and fluffy.

So far we haven't even mentioned how much work a dryer saves. But it will save you lugging two tons of wet wash a year.

THE MARLENE COIFFURE--This is an updated style with the Dietrich look. It heralds the feminine spirit in Leap Year Coiffures. It is cut rather short, with the fluffy look.

Hair fashions for spring are romantic, feminine!

Leap Year is a woman's year! To emphasize this, hairdressers are going all out with a Leap Year Coiffure Collection that heralds the return of the woman in hair fashions for 1964 Spring and Summer.

Gone are the little boy and the little girl fads, as well as the space balloons and bubble heads of other seasons. The woman is here for Leap Year . . . imaginative, romantic, truly feminine.

The Leap Year Coiffure Collection is being introduced by the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, the hair fashion authority of the beauty profession. The styles will be shown throughout the nation in observance of National Beauty Salon Week, February 9-15, dedicated to more beautiful women.

Daytime coiffures are free and easy, of elegant simplicity. After dark coiffures tend towards a romantic mood that can face morning with confidence.

Most of the coiffures in the collection have a slightly asymmetrical silhouette. For evening, the hair at the crown area features extra height dramatically dressed into lacy curl patterns, while hair at the sides is dressed forward or back, hugging the head gently. Whichever way you turn your head, the effect must be elegant, appealing, and feminine.

Daytime coiffures also feature 3-dimensional hairdressing with hair generally brushed from a slight and softened rise at the crown, downward into shiny, smooth motion of soft waves, or into well-placed ruffles and waved frills.

Secret of the new styles is superb hair shaping to give new freedom to the coiffure, and to establish the custom fit of an elegantly shaped head. Add to this a soft professional permanent wave that is now more important than ever before, particularly for the understated and more simple styles, and you have easy-to-manage softness in hair that swings and moves.

Hair at the back of the head is long enough to dress into a blouson effect. Hair at the crown is generally longest, ranging as high as seven inches when needed.

Tone on tone hair color is new this season

Among hair colors, blondes will become truly important again, with reds and natural brownettes vying strongly for attention. However, of outstanding importance will be the plural use of color, a tone on tone effect achieved with two or three tones of a single color for a coiffure. Regardless of the color, your coiffure must have the high sheen of soft and naturally healthy hair for a season that demands a young and fresh new outlook. Consult your cosmetologist for the hair conditioning you need to eliminate any possible tinge of winter dullness.

Tips on hair care

Winter's low humidity takes the starch off of curls--which may be a blessing to those with near-kinky locks! It also increases static electricity, causing "fly-away" hair. Solution - a light spritz of hairspray. A normal-to-dry scalp needs an extra ration of daily brushstrokes to encourage its shine, and very dry hair may require hot oil treatments as well.

THIS ROMANCE COIFFURE of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association is frankly sensitive to the romantic look of black laces and soft chiffons in late afternoon and evening fashions.

THE NATURAL LOOK is in full swing this season. The low side part is high fashion news. This style will look well with the popular soft suits and blouses to be worn this Spring.

Resolutions that really pay off

2. Never, ever go to bed with make-up on.

Sharon Janes to tour Europe; to visit friend

Miss Sharon Janes, nineteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Janes of 1346 Regina Way, Campbell, leaves this afternoon for a five month European tour. The trip is the realization of months of planning for Sharon and her friend, Miss Rita Hirsch of San Jose, who will accompany her.

The two girls will sail from Los Angeles on "The University of the Seven Seas," not as students, but as tourists. The ship will make its first stop at Jamaica, where Sharon will visit for a day with her aunt in Kingston. Their first European stop will be at Rotterdam. They expect to visit Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Spain and England. In Greece they will be the guests of Miss Helen Agathones who attended Campbell High School in 1961 as a foreign exchange student.

Sharon has agreed to send pictures and letters to the Campbell Press so that its readers can enjoy some highlights of her trip.

SHARON JANES

Sharon will be remembered as the popular drum majorette at Campbell High School in 1962. She is now a sophomore at San Jose State College where she majored in Sociology. She intends to finish her education in the fall.

Montalvo offers four different art exhibits

Villa Montalvo's art galleries will exhibit during Feb. 1 to 29, four different forms of art, including oil paintings by Salt Lake artist William Monte Anderson; wood sculpture by Emily Tihenko of Berkeley; Japanese and European prints by Ryonosuke Fukui; and a display of weaving examples by Irene Brown and her students of Saratoga.

Located near Saratoga, Montalvo is open to the public daily except Mondays, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

The paintings of Anderson, or "Monte", which he uses as his brush signature, are new in concept, being neither representational, nor abstract, nor non-objective. Critics say the reality in his work is "dreamed, sensed and spiritualized." He has exhibited recently in Carmel and at Stanford University, and will leave next month for Spain to spend two years to reflect and deepen his work. Mostly self-taught, he received his training in Mount Pleasant with Max Blain, one of the leading Utah landscape painters.

The weaving display will include completed textiles designed and woven for clothing, decorative fabrics, and rugs and wall hangings of Swedish wool. Mrs. Brown, a former instructor in weaving at Villa Montalvo during her three years as an artist in residence there, is a designer as well as executant, and creates textiles of many types.

Mrs. Tihenko's art in driftwood sculpture is to virtually "bring to life" the images she sees in the pieces of wood gathered along the beaches. Her work has been shown in Carmel, Pebble Beach, San Francisco and variously across the nation.

Eye make-up still popular

In make-up the greatest importance will be given to the eyes for a pervasive, provocative, deep-set eye look. Lashes will flutter as never before, full, thick lashes, and eyes will be lined. Several colors will be used for eye shadow, but the soft grays, browns, and taupes will be most important. Clear bright colors will be used for lip shades, clean, clear colors reflecting a perfect Spring day. All will be applied with a light hand, indicating total feminine beauty.

Drawing new attention to the face, will be the advent of beauty spots, which will gain more and more importance by fall. Using the same sign language they conveyed when first used during the reign of Louis XIV, at the corner of the mouth means an invitation to a kiss, side of nose implies freshness, forehead is majestic, close to the ear means passionate, on the middle of the cheek is gallant, and above the lip, a flirt.

Campbell girls invited to enter local beauty contest

Mirror, mirror on the wall---who is the fairest Campbell miss of all? This year the Miss Campbell contest is being limited to Campbell residents only, and this is really the opportunity for Campbell girls to show other communities that they are the very cream ot the crop when it comes to beauty, personality, talent and poise. This is the first year that Campbell lassies have had the chance to compete among themselves and a large turnout is expected from the many talented beautiful young ladies residing in Campbell.

The Miss Campbell contest, sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, will be strictly chaperoned and supervised, under the direction of Ken Stephenson, who has promised that all group appearance arrangements will be made through the committee and all individual appearances will be at previously arranged appointments. If the entry is a high school student, she will not be excused from school for any events other than official Chamber of Commerce business and not more than twice for photographic posing.

The competing young ladies will model lovely fashions at a Chamber of Commerce Luncheon and the 10 finalists will appear in a pageant at the Campbell High School auditorium May 2. At the pageant the future Miss Campbell of 1964 will be judged in a talent presentation, evening wear and sportswear appearances.

Age limits are 17 to 22 and the deadline for registering for an entry blank is March 1, just 17 short days away---so hurry girls---Campbell breathlessly awaits their new representative. The winner will start her official duties by reigning over the Campbell Old Settler's celebration May 14 - 17.

Karen Doolittle returns from world tour

Miss Karen Doolittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Doolittle of 945 Stonehurst Way, Campbell, has returned from a trip around the world as a student in a new venture in international education, the University of the Seven Seas.

Miss Doolittle, who is a graduate of Camden High School, attended the University of Oregon, majoring in education. It is her ambition to teach sociology. The students left New York City on October 22, 1963 and arrived in San Diego on February 8th of this year. There were 275 students and 38 faculty members aboard ship. They visited 20 countries.

Their people-to-people contact and experiences have created new found friends all over the world. The theme of the university is "Instead of trying to bring the world to the classroom, take students, faculty and classrooms to the world." That is the fundamental idea behind this experiment in international living and study. Chartered in California as a non-profit educational institution, the University of the Seven Seas has met all requirements of the State Department of Education to grant degrees and issue transcripts. The University's land-based office is in Whittier, Calif., where the project was originated some years ago by a committee of the Whittier Rotary Club.

A slate of officers for 1964-5 will be voted at the March 11 meeting, and a PTA-sponsored Hootenanny will take over Del Mar on April 3.

Monte Sereno undesirable as Jr. College location

The Citizens Advisory Committee of West Valley Junior College, with concurrence by the trustees, disclosed at the semi-monthly board meeting last night that it has dropped from further consideration eight potential campus sites, including one on Daves Ave., Monte Sereno.

"We have been challenged, chastised, and criticized," Leon Poe, Committee chairman, declared, "for not having recommended a site by now.

"An interim report by the Area Evaluation subcommittee has been ready for several weeks, awaiting the architects' confirmation of our judgment. But the matter of site evaluation is very complex, and we have been given the added problem of the Empire of Monte Sereno and Mayor (Thomas B.) Inglis. We recognize his duty to prevent the loss of 15 per cent of his Dominion, but his careless accusations have insulted a lot of people.

"The Admiral is irresponsible in saying our bond election is a 'pig in a poke.' A lot of unfactual issues have been raised, and I wish to point out that the formation of West Valley Junior College District was approved by the State Department and State Board of Education and by the electorate of the community.

"I emphatically state that this is not capitulation to his (Mayor Inglis') attack, but Monte Sereno (Daves Avenue) is one of eight less desirable sites eliminated from our further consideration. Development costs of that site would be prohibitive. sites eliminated from our further consideration. Development costs of that site would be prohibitive. The other sites include Pruneridge Avenue in Saratoga and the Ainsley property on Bascom Avenue in Santa Clara. We have excellent sites within the 14 to 16 still being considered."

Poe said the Committee had not discussed the sites publicly earlier because it believes the College should be built for the whole community--without any feeling rather that it is being built for a particular site or part of the community.

He said further that the county legal counsel had advised the Committee to "get the money first and the site second." Board member Edward Panelli, an attorney, commended Poe and the Committee for their moral and legal judgment in avoiding any commitment of the Governing Board during the site studies.

Architect John Lyon Reid, of Reid and Tarics, San Francisco, agreed with the Committee's recommendation that the Monte Sereno and other seven sites be dropped as "less desirable than the others."

The Citizens Advisory Committee, Mr. Poe said, is in full swing in support of the bond-issue election, March 10, and has its headquarters in the Salinas Valley Savings and Loan Assn. building at Saratoga Avenue and Prospect Road.

IN TEXAS

Airman Ray E. Shannon, son of Arlon C. Shannon of 49 Kimberly Drive, is being reassigned to Sheppard AFB, Tex., for technical training as a United States Air Force communications wiring specialist.

Airman Shannon, who enlisted in the Air Force a short time ago, has completed his initial basic military training here.

Funeral services for Adele August

Adele M. August, 69, a resident of Campbell for the past five years at 113 North Second Street, died Saturday in a Los Gatos Hospital after a short illness. She was the wife of Joseph H. August of Campbell, mother of Stanley J. August of San Rafael and Mrs. Adeline Cary of Campbell; sister of Albert Derrimon of Oakland and Dorothy Michaelis of Clear Lake. Services were held Monday morning from Campbell Memorial Chapel, followed by Requiem Mass at 10 a.m. at St. Lucy's Church. Interment was at Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery.

Food collection to benefit city in Costa Rica

The employees of Campbell Community Hospital have plunged into a project to collect cans of food for the people of San Jose's sister city in Costa Rica --the other San Jose. It all happened because of their new seamstress.

The new professional seamstress engaged to repair hospital linens, is from San Jose, Costa Rica. Mrs. Anghela Volpe did not ask help for her city, but the employees' council and department heads agreed they wanted to collect food as a gesture of friendliness and concern for the disaster that has stricken her people.

The men, women and children of San Jose, Costa Rica, are struggling under bombardment of tons of volcanic ash showered each day by the active volcano Iracu, 17 miles from the city. During January a marked increase in this deluge of ash made life miserable in the city and spread destruction over surrounding coffee plantations and other agriculture. As this effect spreads, it is destroying the food supply.

Mrs. Volpe, who sews for Campbell Community Hospital out of her home, was a special guest Monday, February 10, to see the collection of food cans donated by the staff before they were sent on their way to her home city.

Campbell Hospital moving toward accreditation

Campbell Community Hospital is moving toward accreditation by the Joint Commission on accreditation on Hospitals. Accreditation cannot be granted until a hospital has been in existence for a year. That year was completed for the 48 bed hospital on January 21, 1964.

Now Maurice J. Norby, representing the American Hospital Association, is making a survey of the hospital. This is a necessary requirement as a step toward accreditation. Listing with the AHA will be the first stage, granted when the survey is satisfactory to its representative.

Del Mar Dateline

The Sretsnips, senior girls' service club, recently elected new officers. Gina Levitt was chosen president; Melodee Burks, vice-president-treasurer; and Barb Mortkowitz, secretary. Light blue parkas for the members will be bought with the proceeds from a car wash and powder puff football game. Melodee Burks has designed the emblem for the parkas.

Rich Scariano has been elected as spring semester student body president. Kathy Sportello is vice president and new council members are Tom Jacob, Greg Knapp, and Marty Melosi.

Tryouts were held the 5th and 6th for the all school play, "By the Skin of Our Teeth." As of this time the results have not been announced.

One half of the profits from the after alumni game-dance will go to the American Field Service and the other half will go to the general student body fund. The AFS will also receive all of the proceeds from the Varsity-Alumni game.

November senior student of the month, Pam Thompson, and January senior student of the month, Jackie Kovach, were given acknowledgement at the last school assembly by Mr. Miskulin, Del Mar principal.

HOMEMAKER

Patricia L. Atchison has been named 1964 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Campbell high school. She achieved the highest score here in a written homemaking examination taken by senior girls throughout the country on December 3, and now becomes eligible for one of 102 scholarships totaling $110.000.

Her paper has been entered with those of other school winners in the state in competition for the title, State Homemaker of Tomorrow.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Q.-I have been disabled four months and do not expect to be able to work again. Do I have to be disabled six months before I can apply for social security disability benefits?

A.-No. You should get in touch with the Social Security Office at 1010 The Alameda, San Jose, now, even though you will not be entitled to payments for three more months. Early application helps speed the handling of your claim for disability payments and, if you qualify, your checks will start promptly.

Q.-Is it true that a disabled worker cannot qualify for monthly benefits until he has been disabled six months?

A.-Yes. A worker must be disabled for six full consecutive calendar months before he can become entitled to benefits. This is called the six-months' waiting period. If the worker qualifies, his first check will be issued for the seventh month. However, he should check with his Social Security Office before the end of the first six months of disability. We suggest that he visit our office about the fourth month after becoming disable.

Q.-How long must I have worked under social security to be eligible for disability benefits?

A.-You must have worked under social security for at least five years during the ten-year period ending with the date you became disabled.

Q.-How disabled must I be to be eligible for disability payments?

A.-You do not have to be completely helpless. However, you must have a disability so severe that it keeps you from being able to do any substantial gainful work. It also must be a condition which will show up in medical examinations and tests. Also, the disability must be a physical or mental condition that is expected to continue indefinitely.

Plans progressing for another Old Settlers Day

Parades! Barber shop quartette singing! Donkey baseball! Carnival! Luncheons! Western clothes! You name it and Campbell will have it during the 72nd Old Settlers' Celebration scheduled for May 14 through May 17. Merv Nelson has been named co-ordinator assisted by Ira Kirkorian, of the four day event sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce in honor of Campbell pioneers and their decendents.

The town of Campbell was founded in 1852 by Ben Campbell who purchased 160 acres of ground in what was later to become the town of Campbell, and his driveway was later known as Campbell Avenue. Campbell takes pride in its historic heritage and observes its founding every year with an Old Settlers Celebration.

Tentative plans for the May celebration call for a kick-off luncheon by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, May 14. Following in rapid succession will be a hilarious donkey baseball game on Friday, a Children's Parade, and an All Star Little League Baseball game Saturday afternoon with entertainment by barber shop quartette singers Saturday night. On Sunday official recognition will be given at a luncheon to Campbell's oldest residents followed by the big Sunday afternoon parade which will carry out the pioneer western theme.

Western garb will be worn by the Campbell resident and merchants during the week starting May 11 and the large West Coast Show, Inc. carnival will be located on the corner of Harrison and Campbell Avenues during the four day event. Trophies will be awarded for prize entries in both parades.

Since this is the oldest Pioneer celebration in the state of California many out-of-state entries are expected in the parade which should top off the biggest and best Campbell Old Settlers' observance yet.

GROOMING IS MORE THAN BRUSHING

By Bob Bartos, Manager
Friskies Pet Food Research Center

Most dog owners associate the term grooming with brushing. True, a daily brushing is important, as it helps keep your pet looking neat. But there are several other aspects of grooming, which, though they may not affect appearance, do contribute to his general well being. Use the proper tools and you can take care of these phases of your pet's toilette, easily and efficiently.

Start with the teeth. Even though your dog chews on a large knuckle bone regularly, tartar is apt to collect. This should be removed every few months. There's a dental scraper made for this very purpose which is available at most pet stores.

CAMPBELL'S VARSITY CHEER LEADERS-- Barbara Smith, Claudia Alexander and Bernadet Smith are Campbell High School's popular cheer leaders. With their pep and enthusiasm they have cheered the varsity teams on to greater heights.

BERNADET SMITH

"Sports are great." With this in mind, Bernie Smith, Varsity Cheerleader, actively participates in Campbell High School. Bernie, seventeen and daughter of Coleman and Trula Smith, is a resident of Campbell and thinks that the city and the high school are "really great and friendly."

Bernie feels that Girls Sports, of which she has competed in two years prior to this, her senior year, is a "very fine organization" for they give girls "a good sense of competition."

Of boys sports Bernie thinks that "they're really great, and show really good sportsmanship."

Hoping to go to West Valley Junior College, Bernie Smith wishes to be a secretary and may already start working at American Technology when she graduates. Full of school spirit, Miss Smith helps pass on this feeling to her fellow students who together give vital support to the teams of Campbell High School.

BARBARA SMITH

Barbara Smith, seventeen, is a typical teenager for she has very definite and individualistic ideas about major problems of her life. A senior at Campbell High and also a Varsity Cheerleader, Barbara has gained the admiration of many of her contemporates.

Daughter of Ray and Kathy Smith of Campbell, Barbara thinks "Campbell is one of the most respected schools in the area and we have a right to this honor." Proud of Campbell, Barbara thinks Boy's athletics are "fabulous" for they give all boys "many chances for success."

But here is where Miss Smith's opinions become those of her own and not those of the teenage populace. She does not want to become a college cheerleader for "college is for study alone." She thinks that Girls Sports "don't give all girls a chance to participate. The idea of it is really great but all schools in general have missed the point."

Barbara hopes to become a dental technician, taking her studies at some college in this area. She does hope to have a family of, as she put it, "four football players, and of course, one cheerleader."

Barbara Smith would rather be a boy than a girl for "boys have more of an opportunity for sports and life itself and girls are too emotional." Of the United States itself Barbara replied, "It's a man's country; let's keep it that way."

CLAUDIA ALEXANDER

Claudia Alexander has the strange distinction of being the only member of the Campbell High Varsity Cheerleaders to live in Los Gatos.

Other than this, Miss Alexander fits comfortably into the Campbell scene. Daughter of Myron and Dorothy Alexander, Claudia is a senior and the spokeswoman and head of the cheerleaders.

When asked about athletics, Claudia said that "boys sports add something to a school and without them (boys sports)there wouldn't be much of a school." As far as girls athletics are concerned, Claudia feels that they're "beneficial to cheerleaders not only for the added physical fitness but for the new people you meet."

Asked if she would rather be a boy or a girl, Miss Alexander replied "having already been a girl, I'd like to be a boy," a logical answer.

Claudia hopes to attend the University of California, Davis Campus, and major in Physical Education. Then she hopes to go on and teach high school P.E. Asked what she would contribute to the teaching profession, Miss Claudia Alexander returned "Just Me!"

DEL MAR HIGH

Del Mar High School was among the schools honored with an award from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, it was announced today. Del Mar will be presented with the George Washington Honor Medal Award in the School Category at ceremonies to be announced at a later date.

Campbell loses to Del Mar, 51-53

Del Mar High School's varsity basketball team defeated Campbell High 53 to 51 Friday night. High point men were Bob Burton of Campbell with 20 points and Ladine of Del Mar with 15. The B teams also played Friday night. In this game, Campbell defeated Del Mar B's, 54 to 23.

Ex-Camden High athlete dies

Theodore James Perry, 20, former Camden High School athlete, succumbed to a rare cranial tumor in a New Mexico hospital last Tuesday. Perry, a 1961 graduate of the school, had been ill for five months. He was a resident of Santa Clara County most of his life.

He was a letterman in football and track and held the shot put record at Camden. Perry had also been active in other school activities.

He was the son of Suzanne Perry of New Mexico; brother of Thomas Perry of San Jose; Joe Perry with the U.S. Coast Guard and Betty Haver of Anderson, and grandson of Manuel Perry Sr. of Gilroy. Services were held in Gilroy Saturday. Interment was at St. Mary's Cemetery there.

Del Mar Dons in close game with Blackford

Tuesday, February 4 the Del Mar Dons played host to the number one team in the Basketball league, the Blackford Braves. The Dons' strategy was to concentrate on defense and to stall whenever they got the ball. However, the Braves overcame this stall type offense by the Dons as they scored a 38-32 victory.

The Dons controlled the tip and held the ball for the first four minutes of the game before Tom Blank scored on a layup. The first quarter found the Braves ahead 4-2. The teams stayed close in the second quarter as the Braves left the floor at halftime leading 13-11.

In the third quarter it looked like the Braves might win easily as they led 28-19 with one period to go. However, Steve Egge sparked a fourth quarter rally that brought the Dons to within 2 points with three minutes remaining in the game. But Blackford hit two key baskets in the final two minutes of play which was too much for the Dons to overcome.

Tom Blank paced the Dons with 9 points followed by Egge with 8, Martin with 6, Ladine with 5, and Sidensol with 4.

The win kept the undefeated Braves in first place in the W.S.C.V.A.L. with an 8-0 record. The Dons now have a 5-3 mark.

Girl Scouts

Mary Susan Adhycki is a Girl Scout who came to Campbell a year and a half ago from Detroit where she was an Underground Polish Girl Scout (to belong to the Girl Scout World Association the country must have a free government). These Scouts are displaced scouts. Their troops are in operation in our country. Everything is done in Polish ways, language, art forms, uniforms, and costumes. Their Girl Scout Laws and Promise are similar to the U.S. Girl Scout Laws and Promise. They study the Polish scouting program, Polish history, heroes, and songs.

These girls are children of displaced persons. Their parents hope to pass on their culture to their children; so that when they can return to their country, their culture will continue on.

These scouts are welcomed in the U.S. There are exchanges between U.S. Girl Scouts and Polish Girl Scouts through visits, songs, games, and thoughts.

Recently, Mary Susan made a visit to Cadette Troop #13 at Bennett Hall and explained to the Girl Scouts about her former troop and showed them some of her Polish Girl Scout books.

During 1964, Pacific Telephone's construction program in California will be the biggest in the company's history, amounting to $419 million. This money will help to create thousands of jobs, not only in the telephone industry but in construction and manufacturing, and among the thousands of suppliers we do business with in hundreds of communities throughout the state. Our $419 million program is a big factor in the state's economy—and another way we're making sure that telephone service is keeping up with California's growth.

Interesting fact: During a three-minute long distance call, you can say all the words in an average two page letter. For example, if you talk slowly, you'll say about 450 words. When you talk a "blue streak," the number of words zooms to about 750. In comparison, Lincoln used 267 words in his Gettysburg Address. If spoken over the phone, it'd be well within a three-minute period. So, fast or slow, you can say a lot for very little when you call long distance.

Here's something you might want to keep in mind. When you need help in an emergency, our Operator in Campbell is as near as your telephone and ready to help —anytime.

Nowadays, coin telephones come in several styles such as our new walk-up type shown at left with telephone man Dave Finch. In addition, some California cities and towns have drive-up phones you can use to make a call without getting out of your car. These, plus the familiar indoor and outdoor coin phones make up the more than 104,000 now in use throughout the state. This helps make sure that you'll always have a telephone handy, whenever you're away from home.

First National Bank introduces Auto Lease Plan

The First National Bank of San Jose, already well-known for its impressive record in pioneering new banking services, has introduced its latest innovation--the First National Automobile Lease Plan. In providing this new customer service, First National establishes itself as Santa Clara County's first auto lease bank.

Robert H. Piper, assistant vice president, has been placed in charge of the First National Automobile Lease Plan. He will be responsible for administering the program throughout the bank's 16 offices in Santa Clara County.

Under provisions of this exclusive new program, individuals, as well as businesses and fleet operators, are now able to enjoy the benefits of bank-sponsored automobile leasing. Customers will name their choice of make and model automobile, and will even be able to designate color and accessories desired.

Lease customers may enjoy considerable tax savings, while businessmen will find they are able to release additional working capital through their automobile leasing arrangements. In addition, automobile leasing eliminates troublesome shopping and the problems associated with resale.

Council for Civic Unity to have dinner

The public is cordially invited to attend the Brotherhood Dinner sponsored by the Santa Clara Valley Council for Civic Unity on Wednesday, Feb. 19, at 7:00 p.m. in Grace Baptist Church, San Jose.

Keynote speaker will be Phillip H. Grice, first director working with the Human Relations Commission of the City of San Jose. The Council hopes everyone concerned with building brotherhood as a living reality in Santa Clara will attend, to draw strength from one another for the work still to be done.

Every cigarette shortens life, smokers told

Over two hundred confirmed smokers packed the First Methodist Church Fellowship Hall in Campbell recently for the FIVE-DAY-STOP-SMOKING plan conducted by Seventh Day Adventists.

"Every cigarette smoked shortens your life by approximately 14 minutes if you are an average smoker" the group was told by R.E. Dunton, director of the program. These statistics are prepared from the findings of the American Medical Cancer Society and the recent Surgeon-General's report.

Associated with Mr. Dunton is Dr. Edward John of San Jose, who outlined the physio-logical aspects of the habit. A group of local physicians from the Santa Clara Medical Society assisted Dr. John in this phase of the program. A special medical feature was planned for Wednesday's program. The sessions which began at 7:30 P.M., Feb. 2 were a free community service.

Eastfield to have luncheon meeting

Eastfield, the Campbell-headquartered child care agency which ranks as Santa Clara County's oldest, will hold its 97th annual meeting on Thursday, Feb. 20, at San Jose Country Club.

Campbell residents interested in the work of Eastfield are being invited to attend the luncheon session. Reservations may be made at the agency's office, at 378-3401.

Organized in San Jose as the Home of Benevolence, Eastfield in 1956 modified its program to embody the present cottage-living facility at Latimer and Llewellyn avenues here.

Progress, purposes and aims of the agency will be discussed in "round table" sessions at the annual meeting, according to Mrs. William H. Gray Jr., Eastfield president.
